Background to Afghan Fajar Association Incorporated (AFAIC)

AFAIC is a not-for-profit organization supporting individuals from CALD migrant and refugee backgrounds to build better lives in Australia. Through a combination of support services, knowledge sharing and advocacy.

AFAIC works to remove the barriers people face as they make Australia their home. Its activities and programs vary and are aimed at helping people overcome the following issues when trying to contribute in the best way to Australia:

- Initial settlement support;
- Language barriers;
- Cultural and social barriers; and
- Financial support.

Our Vision

We aim to create vibrant, connected multicultural Australia where everyone reaches their full potential.

Our Mission

We work to establish a vibrant and connected Australia by providing education, assistance, social and cultural services to people of multicultural and disadvantaged backgrounds that enable the growth of an inclusive and harmonious nation.

Our focus

We help to create more opportunities to build capacity and empower multicultural communities particularly the disadvantaged to take control of their lives.

What are the Afghan Refugee Youth Achievement Awards (ARYA Awards)?

“... Unlike the false rhetoric that refugees are not contributing to our society, Afghans have consistently given back to Australia with joy, passion and hard work and it is time that their achievements are recognised.” – AFAIC

At AFAIC, we empower CALD young people to build the confidence and skills to experience meaningful and successful lives. We motivate young people to take explore opportunities and reach their full potentials.

Our programs focus on creating change from the grassroots and improve a young person’s ability to identify their skills, abilities and attributes that will assist them in their future.

As such, through recognition of the hard work and the success of the refugee communities, particularly the Afghan communities in Sydney, we would like to empower them to continue their positive work in building the next generation of change makers and trail blazers.

Why sponsor the ARYA AWARDS?

When you sponsor AFAIC, we will ensure that this collaboration compliments your existing brand values, enhances your image, and provides a platform to increase the positive community perception and credibility of your business.

Your investment will assist us to provide programs and services that support young people to stay engaged in education, training or employment and have a lasting change in their process of resettlement.

This work will directly benefit young people and their families through recognition and support as well as the delivery of the Afghan Refugee Youth Achievement Awards.

AFAIC has over 8 years' history of working with and for young people and their families from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Backgrounds (CALD). Aligning your organisation with us will add value to your existing value proposition and help you deliver on your corporate social responsibility.

With the support of our corporate sponsors, the opportunities for the young people we work with can become real and life changing. There are a number of ways in which your business or corporation can get involved. However, you choose to help, you'll send a message to the community about your commitment to supporting young CALD people in reaching their full potential.

There are a variety of sponsorships suited to your desired level of investment in recognising the efforts of the CALD communities. So, get involved and make a difference!
